

Know GvHD is a global education and awareness website that provides patients and caregivers with the information and resources to support them on their journey with graft-versus-host disease (GvHD).

Know-GvHD.com >

Know GvHD aims to empower patients with supportive resources to navigate treatment and actively participate in decision-making throughout their journey.

The website offers accurate, helpful content on GvHD's diagnosis, treatment, causes, and symptoms, created by patients, caregivers, and healthcare experts to support the audience effectively.

Patient and caregiver stories are available from those going through similar experiences, as well as interviews with healthcare professionals offering advice and information.
